NOVEMBER 1. 1739. NUMB. 568.

The Pennsylvania GAZETTE.

Containing the freshest Advices Foreign and Domestick.

The SPEECH of the Honourable GEORGE THOMAS, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware, and Province of Pennsylvania.

To the Representatives of the said Counties, in General Assembly met, Octob. 23. 1739.

Mr. Speaker and Gentlemen of the Assembly,

HIS Majesty's Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual for granting Commissions of Marque and Reprisal upon the Ships and Effects of the King of Spain and his Subjects, in Vindication of the Honour of his Crown and for procuring Reparation and Satisfaction for his injured Subjects, having been long since, by his Majesty's Order to me, made publick; and our Accounts from Europe being such as give us too much Reason to apprehend, that a neighbouring Power, in Consequence of its late Alliances, will join with Spain, and that the Flame of War is like to be ruinous and extensive, I cannot doubt but you are met with Minds prepared to do what shall be necessary, as well for Guarding this Government against the Resentment of Spain, as against the Danger that will arise from so powerful a Conjunction: But I must in a particular Manner recommend to your Consideration the Defenceless Condition of this Town, and the Town of Lewes, which from thence and their Situation, may be surprised, plunder'd and burnt by a Force too shameful to be mention'd.

The revising and printing your Laws has been a Work so long talked of, and is so necessary for the Well-Being of the Government, and the Security of every Individual you represent, that it will give me a particular Satisfaction to see you fall upon proper Methods for the Accomplishment of it. And as I can sincerely assure you, that you never had a Governor more disposed to do every thing in his Power for the publick Good, so I hope to find in you the same Dispositions, and a Resolution to avoid Contention, and every other Thing that may obstruct it.

To the Honourable GEORGE THOMAS, Esq; Lieutenant Governor and Commander in Chief of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware, and Province of Pennsylvania.

The ADDRESS of the Representatives of the said Counties, in General Assembly met, at New-Castle.

May it please your Honour,

'HIS Majesty's Warrant, under his Royal Sign Manual, for granting Commissions of Marque and Reprisal upon the Ships and Effects of the King of Spain and his Subjects, in Vindication of the Honour of his Crown, and for procuring Reparation to his injured Subjects, hath, no doubt, been issued by His Majesty, upon the most just and wise Motives, in order to support the Honour of the English Nation, and put an End to those detestable Depredations and Cruelties which have been so long committed by the Spaniards.

'We agree with your Honour, that there is great Reason to apprehend, that a neighbouring Power, in Consequence of its late Alliances, will join with Spain, which may produce a destructive and extensive War. Self-preservation is one of the first Principles Men entertain. As the Laws of Nature, of Nations, as well as the Laws of God, plainly dictate to us a Self-Defence, and as we are under the strongest Engagements and Ties to defend and protect all that is valuable and dear to us, so we shall with the greatest Chearfulness put this Government in such a State of Defence, as the Necessity of the Time may require, and our Circumstances will admit of; and we shall at this time more particularly take into our Consideration the defenceless Condition of the Towns of New-Castle and Lewes.

'We are fully of Opinion with your Honour, that the reviving and printing our Laws, is absolutely necessary to the Well-being of the Government and the Security of every Person we represent; and we shall on our part, chearfully enter upon such Measures for accomplishing a Work so long desired by the People of this Government, as we shall judge most effectual for that Purpose.

'We heartily thank your Honour for the kind Assurance you have been pleased to give us, that we never had a Goveruor more disposed to do every thing in his Power for the publick Good: And we assure your Honour, you will find in us the like Dispositions, and a Resolution to avoid Contention, and all other Means that may obstruct that good Agreement, which should at all times subsist between the Governor and People, on which the publick Welfare so much depends.

New-Castle, Octob. 24. 1739.

Signed by Order of the House,
D. FRENCH, Speaker.

Copy of a Minute of the House of Assembly for the Government of the Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex on Delaware, at their Sessions in October 1739.

A Motion being made, that the House take into their Consideration the Defenceless State and Condition of the Town of New-Castle, and provide for the Security and Defence of the same: It was thereupon

Ordered,

That David French, Andrew Peterson, Jehu Curtis, Thomas Noxon, Richard Grafton and John Finney, consider of the most proper Means for that Purpose, and make an Estimate of the Charge that may be requisite to that End, and make Report to the House of Assembly of this Government at their next Meeting.

At

At the ſame Seſſions was paſſed

An Act providing for the better Security and Defence of the Town of Lewes in the County of Suſſex within this Government.

PETERSBURGH, July, 28.

The Britiſh Merchants eſtabliſh'd in this City, had a few Day ſince, the Honour of complimenting the Princeſs Anne, and the Prince of Brunſwick-Wolffenbuttle upon their Marriage: They were preſented by M. Rondeau, the Britiſh Reſident. The Lord Baltimore has aſſiſted at all the Feaſts that have been made upon Occaſion of the Princeſs Anne's Marriage, he has alſo ſeen the Imperial Library, and the Chamber of Curioſities. To morrow he embarks for his Colony at Maryland. He is not only accompanied by Meſſrs. King and Deſaguliers, but likewiſe by the Marquiſs Algoronti of Verona, a Perſon well known in the Republick of Letters.

They have Letters at Vienna from the Imperial Army of the 5th Inſt. which adviſe, that on the 2d they they remained in the Camp at Panchova; but on the 3d they march'd back to their former Camp at Jaboka, as being very advantageouſly ſituate; for they are there covered in the Rear, and on the Right Wing by Moraſſes, and have a free Communication with Belgrade, which they can relieve and ſupply as Occaſion may require. The Enemy fire upon Belgrade from 8 Batteries, yet they have done but little Damage hitherto to the Works, becauſe they chuſe rather to fire upon the Houſes.

PARIS, Aug. 1. O. S. The laſt Ships belonging to our Eaſt-India Company have brought Letters from Surat, which confirm, that Thamas Kouli-Kan, after he had taken Candahar, march'd his Army into the Cabouliſtan, and took Caboul, the firſt Town belonging to the Great Mogul; and they add this remarkable particular, viz. That before he made himſelf Maſter of the Place, 5000 married Women and Maidens kill'd themſelves in deſpair, for fear of being raviſh'd by the Perſian Soldiers. 'Tis alſo ſaid in theſe Letters, that Kouli-Kan was making great Marches towards Deli, the Reſidence of the Great Mogul; that all the Mogul's Court was under an inexpreſſible Conſternation; that they knew not how they ſhould be able to reſiſt that Conqueror, eſpecially in the preſent melancholy State of Affairs in Mogul; that the Omarans or Grandees of his Kingdom were divived, that they had rendered themſelves in a Manner independent, and that having by that Means ſo many oppoſite Intereſts, a Speedy Revolution was expected; which ſeems to be more certain becauſe Kouli-Kan has nothing to fear from the Great Mogul, who is a Prince educated in the Aſiatick Effeminacy, and by Conſequence incapable of animating his Subjects to ſtand their Ground.

Aug. 22. They write from Madrid, that Mr. Keene, the Britiſh Miniſter there, having declared at that Court, That tho' the King his Maſter had been obliged, in Juſtice to his Subjects, to permit them to make Repriſals upon the Spaniards; yet his Britannick Majeſty did not intend to be thereby underſtood to break the Peace, but only to make Uſe of the Right which Treaties gave him; and as a Proof of his Majeſty's good Intentions, he had charged him to aſſure the Miniſtry, that as ſoon as the Catholick King ſhall pay what is demanded of him, Repriſals ſhould ceaſe and give Place to an Accommodation. To which the Marquis de Villarias anſwered, That the King of Spain was very far from conſidering Things in the ſame Light as the Court of Great-Britain ſeemed to do, not believing it had any Right by Treaties, either to make Repriſals itſelf, or authorize others to make them; that the Equity of the Conduct of the Crown of Spain was evident in every thing which had paſſed ſince the Convention of the 14th of January; the Catholick King therefore could not help looking upon the making Repriſals as an Act of Hoſtility, and would on his Side, permit his Subjects to repulſe the Inſult which might be made on them; that he hoped, with the Aſſiſtance of Heaven and his Allies, he ſhould be able to ſupport a good Cauſe; and that he intended to publiſh a Manifeſto, that all Europe might be inform'd of the true State of the Caſe between Great Britain and Spain, not being in the leaſt afraid of making known his Conduct before as well as ſince the Convention. That Miniſter at the ſame time added, that as ſoon as any Hoſtility ſhould be committed, Mr. Keene ſhould have Notice to withdraw; but till then he might continue at Court in Safety.

LONDON, Auguſt 12.

Extract of a Letter from Compeigne, Aug. 13. N. S.

'The Diſpatches we receiv'd from London the 28th of laſt 'Month, occaſion'd great buſtling at Court. The Cardinal de 'Fleury conferr'd a long Time on the Subject with the King's 'principal Miniſters, and the ſame Night the Courier was ſent 'back to London with an Anſwer to thoſe Diſpatches. We are 'not yet exactly inform'd of their Contents; but a Report is 'ſpread, that if we don't receive more favourable Diſpatches 'from that Court, the Differences ariſen between Great Britain 'and France would probably end in a Rupture: What ſeems to 'confirm this Opinion, is, that the Count de Maurepas has or-'der'd all the Sea-Officers to repair forthwith to their reſpective 'Stations.

Auguſt 17. The Affair of Admiral Haddock's taking ſome Letters out of a French Merchant Ship off of Cadiz, makes a great Noiſe at the Court of France; and the Earl of Waldegrave, his Majeſty's Miniſter at Paris, has been complained to about the Matter, who has writ to the Court here upon the Affair.

We hear that a Deſign has been diſcovered, by the Vigilance of a certain Ambaſſador, of an intended Deſcent to be made on ſome Part of Scotland or Ireland, by the Swediſh and French Fleets, with the Pretender's eldeſt Son.

Auguſt 25. By an Expreſs arrived at Three this Morning, Don Thomas Geraldino received Advice, that the Aſſogue Ships got ſafe into St. Andero, a Port in the Province of Biſcay, the 23d Inſt. N. S. We hear that the ſaid Miniſter daily expects Letters of Revocation from Madrid, and that Peter Terry, Eſq; the Spaniſh Agent for the Aſſiento Contract, alſo expects to have his Commiſſion ſuperceded.

Yeſterday's Letters from Genoa, by the French Mail, adviſe, that Commodore Clayton, in Company with two twenty Gun Ships, has taken a Spaniſh Bark, laden with Wine, and carried her into Port-Mahon.

They ſtill continue to impreſs Seamen out of the homeward bound Ships; and they hope for a conſiderable Number from the Ships ſpeedily expected to arrive from Virginia.

The Merchants have Advice by Letters from Bilboa, that the King of Spain, has declared War againſt Great Britain, and that an Order was given for ſeizing all Ships belonging to that Nation, that ſhall be found in any of his Catholick Majeſty's Ports.

We hear that a certain Foreign Miniſter (though noted for Rhodomontade) has declar'd, he will undertake to eat all the Spaniards the Engliſh ſhall kill either in the Mediterranean or the Weſt-Indies in this Summer.

We hear that General Sabine has deſir'd Leave to reſign the Government of Gibraltar, on Account of his great Age (being about Eighty) and bodily Infirmities.

The Earl of Crawford was cut in the Right Shoulder with a Sabre, and received a Contuſion on the Stomach, in the Battle of Crotzka: His Lordſhip diſcharged two Piſtols at the Turks who aſſailed him.

On Tueſday was held a Board of Admiralty, when the Surveyor of the Navy received Orders to report what more Ships were fit to be put into Commiſſion, which we hear are two Firſt Rates of 90 Guns, ſix Third Rates of 80 Guns, and four of 70 Guns, ten ten Fourth Rates of 44 Guns, one Bomb, two Store Ships, two Sloops, two Yatches, four Hoys, and a Smack.

A Confirmation is come to the Secretaries of State, the Admiralty, &c. of the safe Arrival of all the Assogue Ships at Port St. Andero in the Bay of Biscay, the 2d of August, and immediately landed their Treasure; they had been met at Sea, and acquainted with the Stations of the British Men of War which were cruizing, so they steer'd for the Port they arrived at.
